Raiders Back In The Race With 49 to 0 Win Over Governors

A Raider victory 49-0 over Nelson County coupled with a Rustburg loss to Amherst put Appomattox back in the race for a Seminole District title, however they cannot afford another loss and must count on another district team defeating Rustburg.

While the Raider offense racked up seven touchdowns and a safety, Friday night, a solid defense held Nelson County to four first downs (three by penalties), and minus 123 yards rushing. They allowed only three pass completions for a total of 21 yards and intercepted four Governors aerials.

Chris Johnson put the Raiders on the scoreboard in the first period when he scored on an 8 yard pass from Halfback Terry Woods. Bill Vaughan hauled down a 29 yard pass from Quarterback Joe Fraley, Andrew Kelso scored on a 2 yard run and Freddie Mitchell added two extra points and the Raiders led 20 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second period Fraley passed 7 yards to Woods for a touchdown and Ronnie Abernathy tackled Nelson's quarterback in his end zone for a safety.

After intermission Woods added another score on a 5 yard run, Kenny Wayne Burks carried one in from the three and Vaughan took a 23 yard pass from Byron Roach for the final Raider TD. Mitchell kicked five of seven PAT attempts during the contest.

Appomattox will entertain Altavista Friday at 8:00 p.m. in Bragg Stadium.

Warren Coleman

Coleman Is Standout For JMU

Warren Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Coleman of Appomattox County and graduate of Appomattox County High School, proved that "it's what's up front that counts!"

On Saturday, when James Madison University's Dukes posted a 21-16 win over Hampden-Sydney, the Dukes veteran offensive line, keyed by former Appomattox standout Warren Coleman, opened gaping holes for running backs, George Harris and Butch Robinson.

The Dukes, among the "others receiving votes" in last week's Division 111 AP Poll, amassed 245 yards rushing in upending the eighth-ranked Tigers.

Said Coleman, "This is definitely one of the happiest moments of my life."

What's Happening

By Becky Moore

Ronnie and Doris Nash, will return to Appomattox this week, after spending some time in Bermuda.

Dr. John Fedison, returned home on Thursday from Washington, D. C. where he attended a Virginia State Health Co-ordinating Council Meeting.

There was a lot of Hustle and Bustle going on this past week, with Railroad day. Their was an estimate of 6,000 people in Appomattox on Saturday.

All the ladies of the Woman's Club and Jr. Woman Clubs put forth a lot of effort to get things done.

Our thanks go especially to nurse, Joan Paulette - Appomattox Nurse Station in the high school - where she rendered first aide to Page Nolen and Jenny Fedison Wednesday afternoon. Page, had to have a stitch in her finger - when she was injured while trying to put staple in some of the stage props for the pageant. Jenny recovered nicely while she did a similar thing.

Miss Judy Smith, who has held a position with the Division of Motor Vehicles in Richmond, for the past several years, has been transferred to the Norfolk office. Judy and several guests from Richmond were guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith.

Liz Taylor Warner - says "she will do all she can to help John" this includes traveling on buses, where she has to "refresh her make up" in some of the public ladies room along the way - so be careful girls you could be standing next to one of the "most beautiful women in the world."
